Mardone was positive no ordinary burglar had shot him. He said that within the last month he had received four threatening letters, demanding first $1.000 and then $2,000. He thought the Black Handers had dropped around to emphasize their wants. The old man was able to give a pretty fair description of the two intruders.

RUSSIAN PREMIER ACTS TO PREVENT MASSACRE.

peal by Duma,

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23,-In view of the repeated telegrams from their Jewish excesses at the Russian Easter which begins April 28, caused by the circulation of Black Hundred publications openly appealing to the Union o the True Russian People to slay the Jews, a delegation of members of the lower house of Parliament called on Premier Stolypin to-day and asked him to give orders for the prevention of stricken population that order would be maintained.

Mr. Stelypin promised to immediately
